7. Kevin gave update from the Equestrian Work day...The equestrian group had several work days in late April that included repair and painting of existing jumps in the high part of the park as well as construction of some new jumps (coops). The railing in the ring was also repaired. Additionally, some of the trails in the woods were cleared for riding. And, the trail at the back of the park was leveled (town bulldozer). Also, on May 19th, the equestrian group held a 'Horsemanship 101' day at the riding ring, open to the public, with several breeds of horses, displays of horsemanship and discussion of tack and equine anatomy. Attendance at "Horsemanship 101" day was excellent with 50+ people of all ages and many families stopping by.
